

Funded by the European Union

RECHARGE

Resilient European Cultural Heritage
As Resource for Growth & Engagement

Sander Jürisson
Eesti Meremuuseum

RECHARGE

- Periood 2022-2025
- Uued kestlikud ärimodelid kultuuripärandi valdkonnas
- Teadus + muuseumid/GLAM organisatsioonid + praktilised lahendused ärimodeliteks
- Eluslaborid, testimaks lahendusi päriselulistes situatsioonides

Projekti partnerid

1. Erasmus University Rotterdam (Holland)
2. Stiching Nederlands Instituut voor Beeld Geluid (Holland)
3. Centrum Cyfrowe (Poola)
4. Fundación Goteo (Spain)
5. University of Valladolid (Spain)
6. Creativity Lab (Eesti)
7. Estonian Maritime Museum (Eesti)
8. European Fashion Heritage Association (Itaalia)
9. Textile Museum Prato (Itaalia)
10. The Hunt Museum (Iirimaa)

Research + Analysis

- (1) Analysis of the Current Financing Models and Participatory Practice

Model Making

- (2) Co-creation Business Models for Prototyping
(3) Prototyping and Participatory Management through CH Living Labs
(4) Development of Indicators

Generate Impact

- (5) Capacity Building
(6) Transferability of the RECHARGE Models

1 Hunt Museum

Ettevõtete sotsiaalne
vastutus ja muuseumide roll

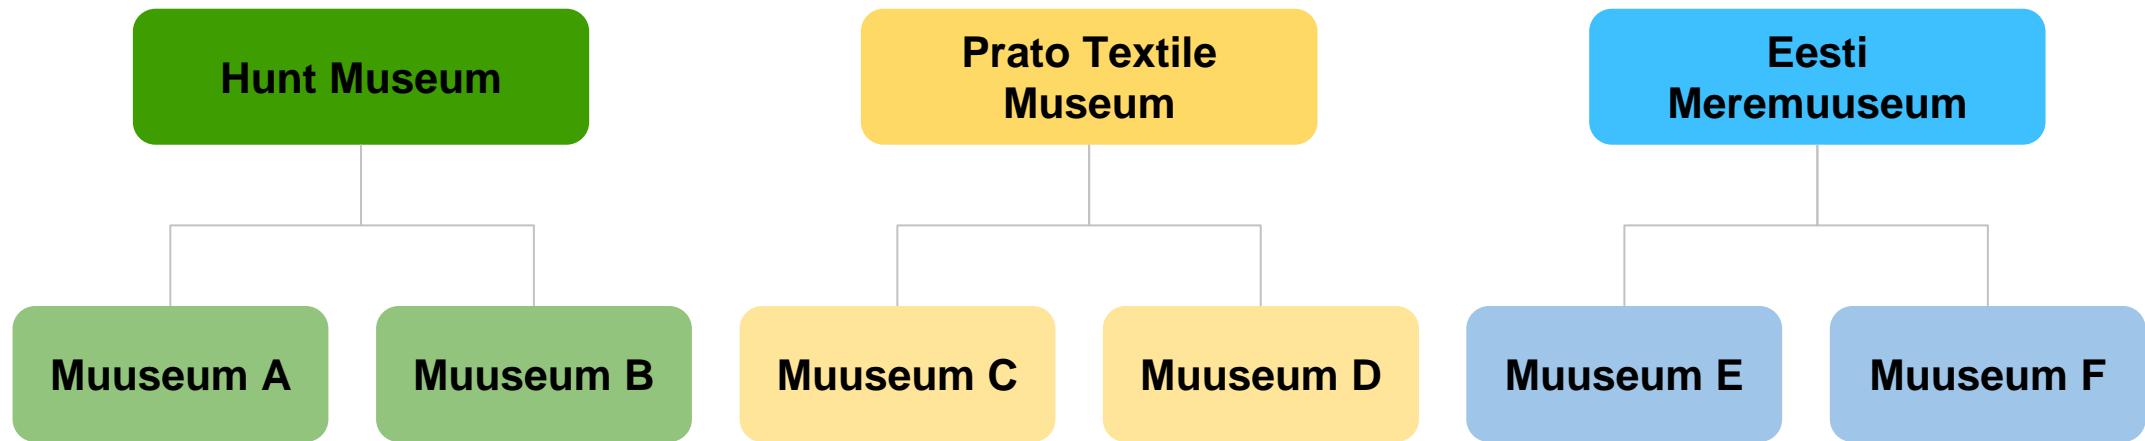

2 Textile Museum Prato

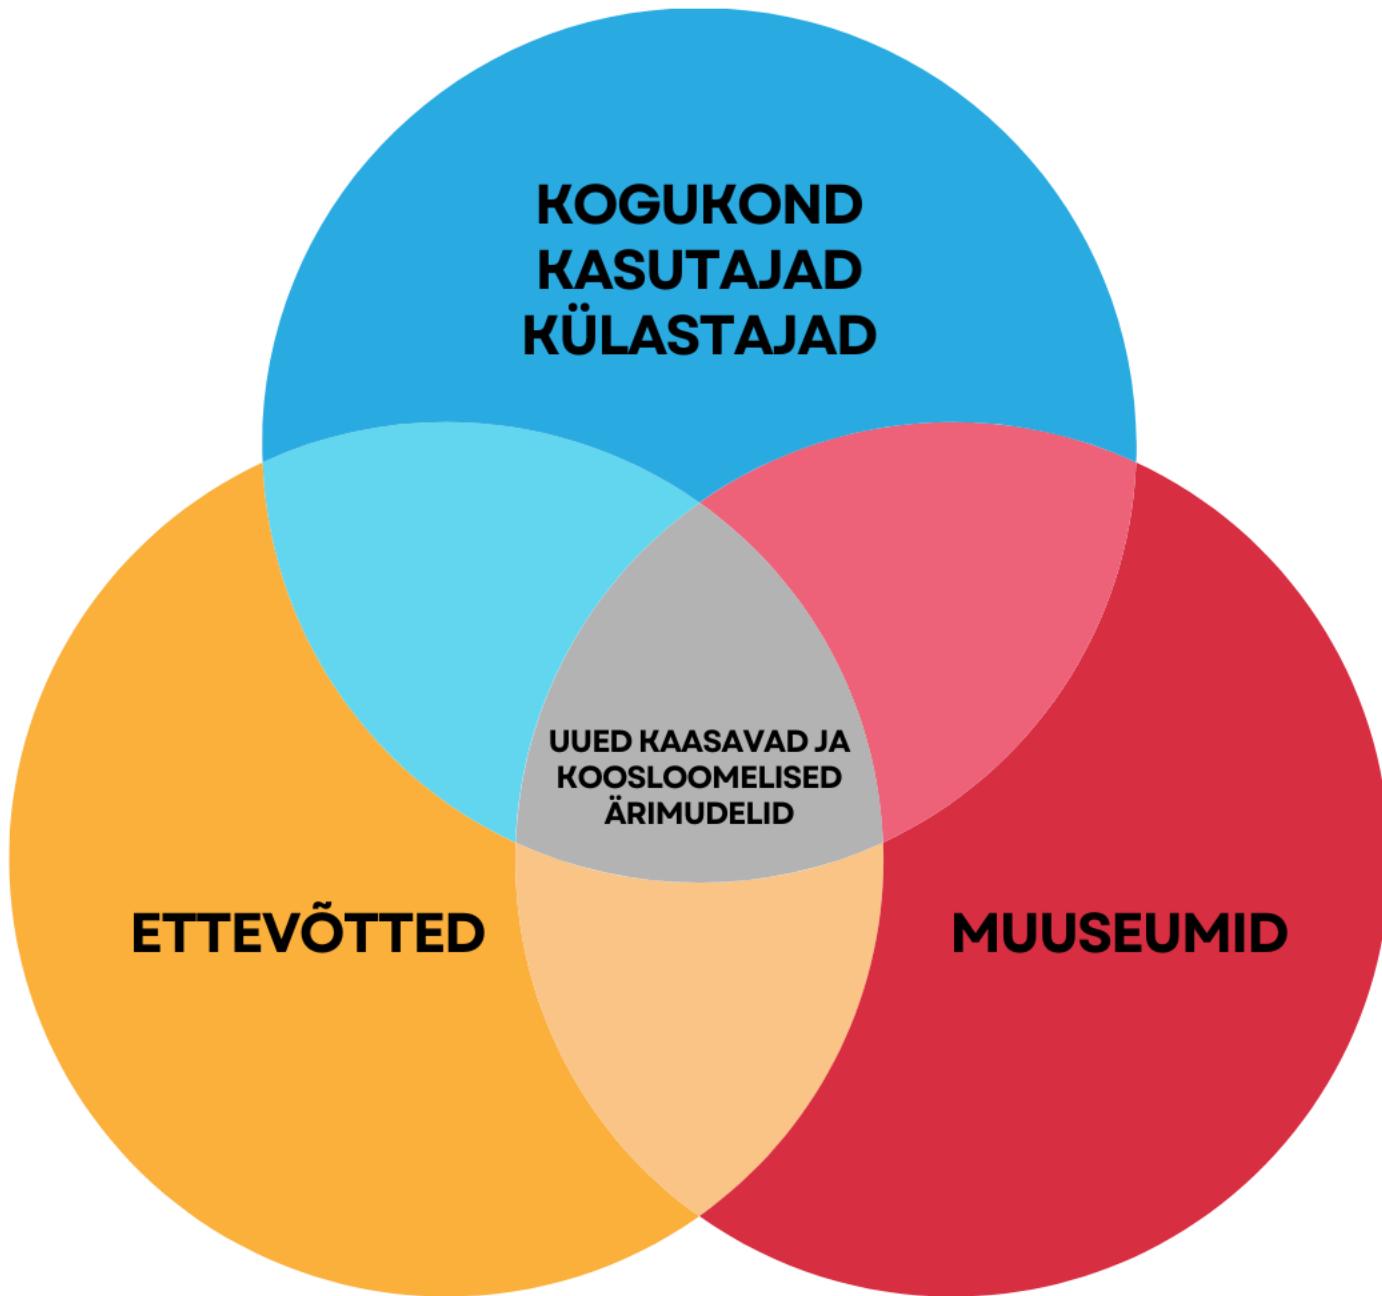

Loomesektori kaasamine
muuseumipoe arendusse

3 Eesti Meremuuseum

Koosloomelised digitaalsed lahendused

9 eluslaborit (Living Labs)

RECHARGE

Resilient European Heritage As Resource for Growth & Engagement