TESTIMONIAL

“ COST projects have supported the development of my own research ideas. For example, the collaboration with researchers from different countries and fields has led us to research on the development of new forms of work and working spaces that support adaptation to the growing uncertainty caused by the pandemic, war, political and economic tensions. ”

Prof. Tiiu Paas
University of Tartu

MAKING THE HEADLINES

- ▶ Researchers of urban trees from all over the world gather for a seminar at the Estonian University of Life Sciences
