

Experiences of Estonia with Nordic-Baltic research cooperation and collaboration with NordForsk

Anu Noorma

27 May 2025

Overview of Estonia's participation

- Active participation since 2019
- 11 joint calls with NordForsk
- 16 NordForsk projects funded by ETAG and Ministry of Regional Affairs and Agriculture

NordForsk

Calls on social well-being

- COVID-19 Mental Health (2020)
- Migration and Integration (2024)
- Sustainable Health and Social Care Systems for Elderly (2024)

Calls on technology and security

- Digitalisation of the Public Sector (2019)
- Responsible Use of Artificial Intelligence (2025)
- Antagonistic Threats Challenging Nordic-Baltic Societal Security-deadline 12.06.2025

Network analysis of funded projects

Most involved organisations

5 projects

6 projects

4 projects

Estonian institutions involved

METK - 1 project

Tallinn University – 2 projects, incl. 1 coordinator

TalTech – 4 projects

Estonian University of Life Sciences – 4 projects, incl. 1 coordinator

University of Tartu – 5 projects

16 Grant Agreements for total of 2.11 MEUR

Project leaders involving EE teams

- Finland – 4 projects
  - Uni of Helsinki, VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland, University of Jyväskylä, Natural Resources Institute Finland (LUKE);
- Norway – 4 projects
  - Norwegian University of Life Sciences, University of Inland Norway; The Arctic University of Norway, Norwegian University of Science and Technology
- Sweden – 3 projects
  - Uppsala University, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
- Denmark – 1 project
  - IT University of Copenhagen
- Iceland – 1 project
  - University of Iceland
- UK – 1 project
  - University of Glasgow

Importance of Nordic-Baltic cooperation

Thank you

- For more information about Estonian cooperation with NordForsk and ongoing joint calls, please visit www.etag.ee

Anu Noorma, anu.noorma@etag.ee