

FEWL
ENHANCING RESEARCH
ON THE INTEGRATION OF
FORMAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMES
AND WORKPLACE LEARNING

Funded by the European Union

GENERAL EDUCATION REIMAGINED: CONNECTING LEARNING WITH THE WORLD OF WORK

19th November 12.00 - 17.00

PROGRAM

12:00-13:00 Doors Open and Networking lunch

13:00-13:15 Opening words

Kristel Oitmaa ja Dr Carmen Kivistik, Estonian Research Council Brussels Office
Inge Timoštšuk, PI of the FEWL project, Tallinn University

13:15 -13:55 - Visual posterpresentation of the project results

- Katarzyna Kärkkäinen, University of Jyväskylä - Migrant Students' Learning at the School–Workplace Interface in Vocational Education: What General Education Can Learn?
- Jana Schwede, Paderborn University - Building Bridges in Vocational Education and Training: How School–Workplace Cooperation Remains a Challenge
- Kaidi Nurmik & Inge Timoštšuk, Tallinn University - Children Need Experiences of Work Today to Dream of Tomorrow's Professions
- Maria Erss & Krista Loogma, Tallinn University - Uncovering the Hidden Connections Between Real Work and Student Empowerment in Schools

13:55 - 14:45 - Panel discussion on how to enhance the position of general education schools in preparing for the world of work

Panelists:

- Silvia Gomez Recio, Secretary General, YERUN – Young European Research Universities
- Peep Peterson, former Chairman of the Estonian Trade Union Confederation & former Minister of Health and Labour
- Kaidi Nurmik, experienced primary teacher
- Nathalie Baïdak, Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA), coordinator and co-author of the report on Entrepreneurship education at school in Europe

14:45 – 15:00 Break

15:00-15:30 Interactive Discussion

Facilitated by Katarzyna Kärkkäinen, Postdoctoral Researcher, Finnish Institute for Educational Research, University of Jyväskylä and Jana Schwede, Research Associate, Educational Management and Research in Further Education, Paderborn University

15:30-15:40 Conclusion and Next steps

15:40 - 17:00 Networking coffee